

The Daily Gazetteer.

Nov. 1875

MONDAY, DECEMBER 14. 1741.

Saturday last arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Cadix, Nov. 24. N. S.

EW Squadrons have been better mann'd, than that which sail'd from hence the 16th instant, consisting of 16 Men of War, and 9600 Men, besides those on board the Transports. On the 18th it pass'd the Straits of Gibraltar, when there were in the Bay of that Name 20 English Men of War, under Admiral Haddock. Our Merchants are mightily rejoic'd at the News which is arriv'd from Madrid to the Consulate Office, viz. That by the Mediation of France, a Suspension of Arms is actually negotiating between Spain and England, during which, they hope, all Differences will be accommodated.

Madrid, Nov. 27. The first Transports, and their Company, that sail'd the other Day from Barcelona, carry'd 1872 Men; and the second Squadron, which is soon to follow, will consist of 15176, which will form an Army of 31028 Men in the Whole. A Manifesto is now lying up at the Office for Foreign Affairs, to declare the Motives of sending an Army to Italy, and that his Majesty's Rights to the Dominions of his Ancestors in that Country, tho' suspended, were so far from being annul'd, that he reserv'd them to himself by the Restrictions which accompany'd his Accession to the definitive Treaty of Vienna in 1737.

From the Confederate Camp before Prague, Dec. 5. N. S. On the 2d the Elector of Bavaria sent 15000 Men over the Moldaw, who advancing toward the Austrian Army upon their Rear Guard so briskly, that they kill'd 200 of their Men, and took 300 Prisoners. The Marshal de Melle having in a Letter to the King of Prussia represented the Necessity of his Troops joining those of the other Allies, to give a convincing Proof of the Share he has in the Common Cause, he receiv'd an Answer from Prussian Majesty Yesterday by an Express, that he accordingly sent Orders to his Troops in the County of Glaz, to join those of France, Bavaria, and Saxony, in order to pursue the Great Duke's Army, and force it to quit the Kingdom of Bohemia; and his Majesty added, that he put his Troops under the said Marshal's Orders and Directions: Whereupon the Marshal immediately sent an Officer to the County of Glaz, in order to command the March of those Prussians with Prince Leopold of Anhalt-Deslaw. Since the 2d instant above 900 Men were defected to this Camp from the Austrian Army; which they say, is in a very bad Condition, and that it seems to want Bread.

Paris, Dec. 11. N. S. When the King was inform'd of the Conquest of Prague, and how much he was oblig'd for it to Count Maurice of Saxony, he made Answer, never question'd his Bravery, and am perswaded that he had been sick, he would have chose to have been employ'd to the Trenches, rather than slip an Opportunity of signaling it. The Dowager of Charles Count de Motte-Hodancourt, a Grandee of Spain, a Lieutenant-General of the King's Forces, and Governor of Bayona, dy'd here the 6th instant, in the 99th Year of Age.

HOME PORTS.

Over, Dec. 11. Wind E. Came in the Ann, Robert, from Rotterdam for the Isle of Man; the Jane, from Plymouth; and the Friends Goodwill, Dyer, from Portsmouth for Chatham. Sailed the Love and Betty, Nicholson, for Dublin; and the Vineyard, Holman, for Weymouth. Arrived the Thomas and Mary, from Oporto and Falmouth.

Deal, Dec. 11. Wind E. by S. This Morning sail'd Majesty's Ship the Scipio, with all the Outward-bound, to the Westward; and the Terrible and Carcass, for the River. Came down the Port Merchant, for Oporto. Arrived the Medway, Williams, from St. Kitts last from Dartmouth; the Westmoreland, from Leghorn; and a Dutch Ship from Rotterdam for Batavia. Remain his Majesty's Ships the Dover and the Squirrel.

Deal, Dec. 12. Wind N. by E. Came down since last the Nancy, Tracy, for Barbary. The Men of War Dutch Indianman remain as per Yesterday.

Arrived

the Pillau, the —, Jackson, from Dantzick.

L O N D O N, December 14.

Letters of the 4th O. S. from Hambourg say, an Express arriv'd there the Day before from Stockholm, that the Eleonora Queen of Sweden dy'd there the 24th ult. after three Days Illness of the Small-pox. She was born the 13th of January 1688, so that she was fifty-three Years ten Months and twelve Days old. The 24th of March 1713 she was married to the then Hereditary Prince of Hesse Cassel now King of Sweden: On the 7th of February 1719, she was proclaim'd Queen of Sweden, on the Demise of her Brother Charles XII; and the Prince her Husband was proclaim'd King the 22d of March 1720, on her resigning the Regal Dignity to him, with Consent of the States. His Swedish Majesty is in the 66th Year of his Age.

The Reports of the March of 35,000 Prussians towards Cleves, and of the Departure of the French Squadron from Brest, are contradicted.

The Letters from Germany say, that a good Body of Prussians has join'd the Allies, and that the Austrians are arriv'd on the Frontiers of Austria and Moravia; That the Elector of Bavaria was proclaim'd King of Bohemia at Prague on the 27th ult. and was to be crown'd there about the Middle of this Month; That the Count of Bavaria is appointed Governor of that City, and that the Bavarian Troops are marching into Winter Quarters in Upper Austria and Bavaria, while those of the other Allies are to be distributed in Bohemia. 'Tis said, that if the Austrian Army should join the Army under the Great Duke of Tuscany, they will amount to near 70000 Men.

Letters of the 7th from Amsterdam say, that William Gustavus Baron of Imhoff, who was in 1740 nominated by the General Court of Directors of the Dutch East India Company to be Governor General of all the Colonies belonging to the said Company in those Parts, has at length accepted that important Office.

Yesterday arriv'd also the Mails due from FRANCE and FLANDERS. — The Paris A-la-main of Wednesday last says, the Turkish Ambassador is arriv'd in the Suburbs and to make his Publick Entry at Paris the 27th instant O. S. That Writer begins his Letter with the following Article from the Hague, viz.

'They write from Constantinople, that the Grand Vizir had deposed the Testendar for his Attachment to the Interests of the Queen of Hungary, and that 'tis believ'd the Porte will behave to that Sovereign otherwise than they have done lately. Several Advices from Hanover give Room for a Conjecture that Affairs in general are taking some new Turn, because the Baron de Haflang the Bavarian Minister at Hanover, and the Baron de Wedel the Hanoverian Minister in Bavaria, are both recall'd from each Court, together with their respective Secretaries.

'According to Advices from the Hague, most of the United Provinces, tho' convinc'd of the Usefulness of forming a Camp, are much perplex'd about it. It being one of the Privileges of the Provinces of Guelderland, Friseland and Groningen, wherof the Prince of Orange is Stadtholder, that he ought to have the Command of such Troops as assemble there, 'tis observ'd that the Province of Guelderland insists so much upon the Necessity of this Camp, for no other Reason but for an Opportunity to get that Prince declar'd General of the Infantry, and a more favourable one could not offer, because there is to be a Promotion of General Officers forthwith.'

From the London Gazette.

St. James's, Dec. 11.

This Day the following Address was presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, as President of the Convocation of the Province of Canterbury, accompany'd by the Bishops; and also by the Lower House, with their Prolocutor.

To the K I N G's most Excellent MAJESTY,

The humble Address of the Archbishop, Bishops, and the Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, beg leave, with the general Voice of your People, to present our most humble and unfeigned Congratulations on your Majesty's safe and happy Return to these your British Dominions.

It is with the utmost Joy and Satisfaction, that we embrace every Opportunity of openly professing to you, Majesty, and to all the World, our deep sense of the manifold and great Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Government; of the free and equal Course of all publick Justice; of the full and undisturbed Possession of our

Civil Rights and Liberties; with all those other Benefits, which daily accrue to us from your watchful Care and active Zeal for the Safety, Honour, and Prosperity of your Kingdoms.

But that which chiefly affects the Hearts of your faithful Clergy, is your firm and invariable Resolution to support and defend our holy Religion, as by the Laws of your Realm now happily established in the Church of England; which, on all Occasions, your Majesty hath so fully and publicly declared, and of which we have such convincing and undeniable Experience, that with all possible Thankfulness we rest assured, that thro' the Divine Assistance we shall transmit to Posterity complete and entire the same primitive Faith, the same apostolick Form of Church Government, and in all other Respects the same excellent Constitution, which hath hitherto been found the chief Bulwark of the Reformation.

These Sentiments, which fill our own Breasts with unspeakable Joy and Gratitude, we think it our indispensable Duty, with our utmost Care and Diligence, to impress on the Minds of all those, whom Divine Providence hath placed under our Inspection: And we do earnestly beseech the Almighty, by whom Kings rule, that all your Designs and Undertakings for the publick Good may be crown'd with Success; that your Reign over us may be long and glorious; that the Whole and every Part of it may be as happy to yourself and to your Royal Family, as it is beneficial to us, and all the rest of your People; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Descendants to sit the Throne of these Kingdoms, till Time shall be no more.

His MAJESTY's most Gracious Answer.

My Lords, and the rest of the Clergy.

I Thank you very kindly for this affectionate and loyal Address. You may depend upon my constant Care to maintain and support the Church of England, as by Law established; and to preserve to my People the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights.

They write from Leghorn, that great Quantities of Brass Cannon, and all Sorts of Ammunition and military Stores, are daily arriving there from Florence; and that the Dispositions are continued for putting that Place in the best Posture of Defence.

From Florence, that since the Departure from thence to Leghorn of the Lorraine Regiment of Foot Guards, they are unmounting and constantly removing thither from the Castles of Florence, the Brass Cannon, Mortars, and the Remainder of the Ammunition and military Stores.

Capt. Shank, of the Westmoreland, lately arriv'd from Leghorn, in his Passage, off of Cape de Gata in the Straights, saw 19 large Ships, which he took to be the French Squadron.

Alexander Hume Campbell of Lincoln's Inn, Esq; Brother to the present Earl of Marchmont, and Knight of the Shire for Berwick, is appointed Solicitor-General to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in the room of Richard Hollings, Esq; deceased, and not George Greenville, Esq; as lately mentioned.

A few Days since Mr. Shuttleworth, an eminent Apothecary at Rochdale in Lancashire, was married to Miss Silly Kenyon of the same Town, a Lady of great Beauty and a considerable Fortune.

Yesterday the Rev. Dr. Hutton preach'd before his Majesty, the Duke, and the Princesses, at the Chapel Royal at St. James's.

On Saturday last the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the Bridge-Lottery; viz. No. 43033, 1000 l. No. 37331, 500 l. No. 15395, 100 l.

The Right Hon. Sir Charles Wills, Colonel of the First Regiment of Foot-Guards, who has been dangerously ill some Time past, is in a fair Way of Recovery.

As is likewise her Grace the Duchess Dowager of Marlborough.

Falmouth, Dec. 10. Since my last sail'd all the outward-bound Ships. The Packets remain as per list.

Dartmouth, Dec. 11. Wind N.E. On the 9th arriv'd the Catherine Galley, Van Houten, from Curacao for Amsterdam; and Yesterday, the Happy Return, French, and the Catherine and Susanna, Laverence, both from Lisbon for this Place, who reports, that the Dartmouth, Porter, from Newfoundland, was well at Lisbon when they sail'd from thence; (this Ship was reported to be taken and carried into Bilbao) and that some of our Men of War, with Transports under their Convoy, for Gibraltar, had been chas'd by the Spanish Squadron, and that two Men of War and one Transport was got safe into Lisbon; and it was fear'd that some of the Fleet had fallen into the Hands of the Spaniards.

Poole, Dec. 12. Came in the Providence, Windsor, the Ann and Mary, Bottley, and the John and Jane, Peley, all from London.

Cowes, Dec. 12. Wind N. Yesterday sail'd the Delight, Lawes, from Amsterdam for St. Eustatia; the Concord, Le Courier, from Havre de Grace, for Martineco; and the Ann and Sarah, Short, a Tender for Plymouth.

Portsmouth, Dec. 13. Since my last sail'd from St. Helens for Gibraltar, with a fair Wind which still continues, Commodore Lestock, in his Majesty's Ship the Neptune, with the Basilisk, Royal Oak, Nassau, Lenox, and Sutherland.

At Spithead are his Majesty's Ships the Royal Sovereign, Victory, St. George, Sandwich, Duke, Cambridge, Norwich, South-sea-castle, Deal-castle, Biddeford, Seaford, Hawk and Blazer.

Dover, Dec. 13. Wind N.N.W. Came in the Ann, Wyner, from Shoreham for Rotterdam; the St. Joseph, Guvart Bazz, from Dunkirk for Bristol; the Philip and Mary, Granger, from Sunderland; and the Ann, Kindness, from Plymouth. Sail'd the Ann, Robertson, for the Isle of Man; the Susanna, Willard, for Carmarthen; and the Young Olrick, Elderchman, for Roan. Arrived the Albany, Clark, from New York, last from Falmouth; and the Endeavour, Howard, from Hamburg for Boston.

Deal, Dec. 13. Wind N.W. Came down and remains with the Ships mention'd in my list, the Benjamin, Piddgton, for Portsmouth. Sail'd thro', the Sirah, Remirk from Newcastle for Boston; the Betty, Smith, for Oporto.

Gravesend, Dec. 13. Yesterday pass'd by the Sally, Bailey, from Jamaica; the John and Isabel, Warden, from Barbados; the Neptune, Brown, and the Italian Galley, Taylor, from Leghorn; the San Antonio, —, and the Nostra Senora, Francisco Houfi, from Faro; the Neptune, Holding, from Dunkirk; the Victory, Newman, from Stockholm; the Three Brothers, Trapnell, from Norway.

Pass'd by this Day, the Rupert's Fourth Prize, Capt. Knowler, from the Bay of Biscay; the Cumberland, Wall, from Maryland; the Thomas and Mary, Edmonds, from Oporto; the Success, Dankin, from Gottenburgh; the Lady Metta, Willers, from Bremen.

Arrived at several Ports.

At Swinzeay, the Tomlinson, Tomlinson, from Barbados for London.

At Liverpool, the Sherlock, —, from Virginia.

At Dunkirk, the Legere, Pruneau, from Nants.

At Genoa, the Golden Sarah, Baker, from Yarmouth.

LONDON, December 15.

The Kennington Man of War, Capt. Peyron, has taken and carried into Lisbon, a Carr, bound from Cadiz to Vera Cruz with Twenty Tons of Quicksilver and other Goods.

The Commons of Ireland have under Consideration a Bill for taking away the King's Professor of Physick in the City of Dublin, on the next Vacancy, and for erecting Three other Professors instead thereof.

They write from Dublin, that the Lady of the Rev Dr. Delany died there the 7th Instant of a Fever: That

By the Death of Mrs. Trewel, Wife of the Rev. Mr. Trewel and Widow of the late Dr. Stoa formerly one of the Masters of Chancery in Ireland, an Estate of about 2000 l. a Year falls to Mrs. Marshal Wife of Robert Marshal, Esq; Serjeant at Law;

And Simon Sandys, Esq; formerly an Agent to several Regiments in Ireland is dead, and has left to his Brother William Sandys, Esq; an Attorney of the Common Pleas in Ireland, 16,000 l. besides handsome Legacies to his other Friends.

Extracts of a Letter from the Hague, of Dec. 19. N. S.

They write from Rome, that the Spaniards Expedition to Italy is very displeasing to that Court, inasmuch that the Pope told the Spanish Cardinal Acquaviva, he was extremely sorry that his Paternal Remonstrances had not prevail'd with the Court of Madrid, not to disturb the Tranquillity of Italy; and that he also complain'd to the French Cardinal Tencin of his Disappointment, to find that his Remonstrances upon that Head had made no Impression upon Cardinal Fleury: But both those Cardinals having assur'd the Pope that the Troops shall not go into Tuscany, he is somewhat pacify'd.

From Berlin, that the Prussian Troops in Bohemia are not to act this Winter, and that the King has sent Orders to Silesia, that the Sick and Wounded of the Austrian Prisoners be taken great Care of, and have Leave to return to their Regiments as soon as they are recover'd.

From Stockholm, that such Naval Preparations are making by the Swedes in all their Ports, that they hope to have the strongest Fleet next Year that they ever put to Sea; and that the New Levies are to be continued this Winter, throughout the Kingdom, with a View to have as numerous an Army at home as they have in Finland, where they have at present 50000 Men.

The last Letters from Constantinople say, that the Basha Count de Bonneval is nominated by the Grand Signior Basha of Egypt, which is the chief Government in the Ottoman Empire, and that he is actually set out to take Possession of it. When the News came thither of the Action at Wilmanstrand in Finland, it was so far from giving Pleasure to the Turks, that they would not so much as permit the Muscovite Ambassador to make the usual Illuminations upon that Occasion. The Letters add, that the Grand Vizir himself is not secure in his Post, so far as after he had caus'd the Tetterdar to be depos'd, and sentenc'd to Exile at Grand Cairo, the Galley that was to carry him was dismiss'd, and his Banishment chang'd into a Pilgrimage to Mecca; and the Vizir to maintain himself in his Post was glad to give a grand Entertainment to the Sultan at his New Palace, and to make him an extraordinary Present. They had at length certain Advice that Kouli Kan is encamp'd with his whole Army on the Shore of the Caspian Sea, where he had not yet committed any Hostility; and that the two Powers expect the Arrival of an Ambassador from each to accommodate their Differences amicably.

They write from Petersbourg, that at the Desire of Kouli Kan, the Court has sent Orders to the Patriarch of Moscow, to send some of the most able of the Clergy, to go as Missionaries into his Dominions. Several Foreign Ministers at that Court have receiv'd Copies of a Plan of Peace in Agitation betwixt Muscovy and Sweden.

We are going on with the Works at the famous Sluice of Waterfort near Zutphen, without any Contradiction or Opposition on the Part of the King of Prussia, from whence 'tis infer'd, that his Majesty is satisfy'd with the Reasons alleg'd by the States-General in their Resolution of the 30th of September last for carrying on the Works of that Sluice, which is the only one capable of hindering any hostile Invasion in the Province of Guelderland.

A Letter from Lintz, the Capital of Upper Austria, says, that they are under terrible Apprehensions of a Siege by the Queen of Hungary's Forces; and that the Bavarian Officer who commands there has been heard to say, that if they took the Town by Storm, he would set Fire to it, and retire into the Castle.

They write from Prague, that the Inhabitants were oblig'd to pay 10000 Florins to save the Town from Punder, and the Jews 2000 Ducats.

A Letter from Petersbourg brings the following Extract of one from the late Duke of Courland, an Exile in Siberia, to a Friend of his in that City, concerning the Vanity of this World's Enjoyments.

"If any Body had said before my Disaster happen'd, that I could survive my Misfortunes, I should not have believ'd 'em. Fortune had been too liberal to me, and her Favours had blinded me to such a Degree, that I had no Notion of what it was to be unfortunate. But I am now fully convinced, tho' without murmuring, of Fortune's Inconstancy, and how dangerous it is to trust to Possessions, which are snatch'd from us the very Moment when we are most sure of keeping them, and leaving us only the vain Pleasure of reflecting that we were once Persons of some Distinction, in a World where all is Vanity. 'Tis in God alone that there is true Pleasure to be found; and would to God that I had known this sooner, I should not then have had such a Number of Sins to expiate by Repentance. My Spouse, convinc'd of this Truth, comforts me, and encourages me by her Example to the Practice of Virtue; and I blush to think it was so late before I knew that Humility and Mortification are the only Ways to come at True Pleasure, which is to enjoy God, &c."

They write from Poland, that the People murmur and clamour so much at the sending of Troops into Bohemia, that the Consequences are sadly dreaded.

Yesterday the Justices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster met pursuant to their last Adjournment, and divers Persons took the Oaths to qualify themselves for their respective Employments under the Government.

The same Day a Woman well dress'd was taken up drown'd out of the New River Head. There appeared several Marks of Violence about her Body, so that it is supposed she was murdered and flung in.

Her Body was afterwards carried and expos'd to public View in Islington Church-yard.

The same Day several People being skating on the Ice on the Canal in St. James's Park, five of 'em fell in, and narrowly escap'd being drown'd.

The same Day the following Numbers were drawn Prizes in the Bridge-Lottery; viz. No. 14463, 13082, each 2000 l. No. 34310, 1000 l. No. 5877, 18064, each 500 l. No. 30883, 49738, 3167, 37871, 24401, each 100 l.

It may be proper to observe, that the Advice by Letters from America, in one of Yesterday's Papers, of five Ships having been taken and carried into the Havanna, is no other than an Abstract of the Advice insert'd in the Daily Gazetteer on the 8th of October last.

Patriot Proceedings.

The CRAFTSMAN in his true Colours.—An Advocate for Spain, and an Enemy to the Honour of his Country, seasonably published, in order to keep up the Spirit of the Malecontents, and hinder their Allies abroad from making a hasty Peace.

The Champion frankly declares the Want of Places to be the true Source of Modern Patriotism.—Batters a great Assembly for sitting up late, and expresses an Apprehension of seeing his Labours defeated, and his Hopes blasted, by the Gazetteer.

A great Assembly instructed what Inquiries to make upon, that nothing may remain a Mystery to the Readers of the London Evening.

Popish Proceedings.

An infamous Libel on the King's Person and Government, supposed to be sent abroad as present to ballance certain loyal Ad—s; yet this Paper pretends to Patrons who are true Englishmen and good Protestants. Credit qui vult!

N. B. The Sting in the Tail amounts to this. All Irish Evidence who will apply their Talents to Plantation Affairs, shall have a Fellow-feeling with their Countryman Mr. Common Sense.
